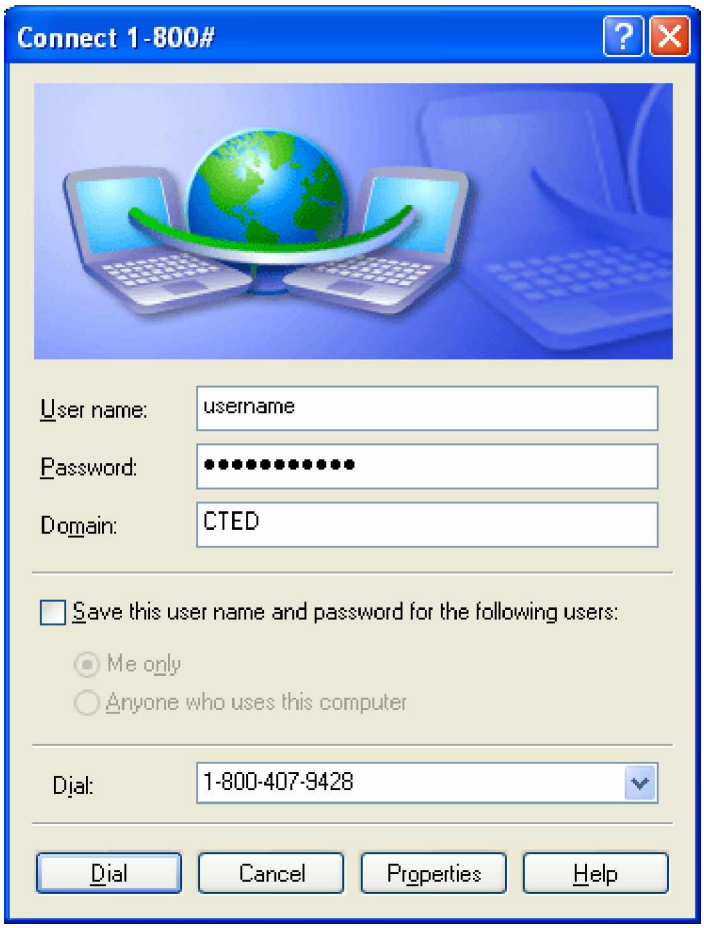
CTED Dial-in 1-800# Setup Instructions

These are the directions to setup dialing into the CTED network.

Windows XP instructions:


1. Log into machine as normal.
2. Click “Start”, “All Programs”, “Accessories”, “Communications”, “New Connection Wizard”
3. New Connection Wizard window will appear then click “Next”.
4. Select “Connect to the Internet” and click “Next”
5. Select “Set up my connection manually” and click “Next”
6. Select “Connect using a dial-up modem” and click “Next”
7. Under “ISP Name” type in “1-800#”.
8. Under “Phone Number” type in “1-800-407-9428”.
9. If not grayed out select “Anyone’s use”, and click “Next”.
10. Do not put in username and password and click “Next”.
11. Check “Add a shortcut to this connection to my desktop” and click “Finish”
12. Click “Start”, “All Programs”, “Accessories”, “Communications”, “Network Connections”
13. “Network Connections window will appear. Right mouse click “1-800#” and select “Properties”
14. Click the “Options” tab and check “Include Windows logon domain”
15. Click the “Security” tab and select “Advanced (Custom Settings)” radio button.
16. Click “OK”.
17. Make sure you enter your User name, Password, Logon Domain which is “CTED” and select “1-800#” from the “Dialing from” option before you dial into RAS. Do not place a check mark in the “Save Password” box. Your Login window should look like this when completed: